My Twitter (For contact if needed): @RBLXFaveExposed

For context, I had originally learned about this situation when I had accidentally stumbled across one of the victims' tweets with an alleged screenshot of Fave speaking inappropriately to her. I had known her, and was easily able to ask what happened. Since our initial conversation I've basically stumbled across a rabbit hole of his disgusting actions.

Notes:

- Content Creators and people with power in general abusing their power to use their fans for their sexual desires is very wrong.
  Not only is abusing power wrong, you have to consider the fact these are children. Apparently this has been going on since 2016 so I'm very certain there are much more people who have had similar experiences with Fave which I've not gotten the chance to speak to

- The names with symbols:
  They will not be identified, but they are all separate victims

- The snapchat usernames might be different in the screenshots because you're able to nickname people on snapchat and it'll appear during chats as the name

- Blocking is not as easy as you think it is. Don't excuse his behavior by saying it's their fault for not blocking him.
  If they're already in a friendly relationship with him, they'll believe he'll stop, which obviously never happens.
  It's not their fault and never will be

- The main point of this document is not about the age gaps, it's about the overall abuse of power and how creepy he acts.
  Something being legal does not mean it's okay. You shouldn't consider it as such just because there's a short age gap between Fave and the victim

Ellie

Victim #1

According to a video created by the victim, they both met through a discord server's voice chat.
After being in there for a while, Fave eventually decided to hit them up in DMs.
To the victim it was very obvious Fave was attempting to flirt, but they were not interested.

At the time the victim believed Fave was 21 due to the age listed on his "Famousbirthdays" page. It was later proven by a picture of Fave's driver's license that Fave was 19. Since then, the Famous Birthdays' page has been changed to display his correct age.

Considering the victim was 17, and at the time Fave was 19, they were not able to consent to anything romantic or sexual, it makes the situation even more worse considering they obviously weren't interested and Fave kept pushing his feelings onto them.
The victim created a youtube video which you're able to watch, which contains screenshots and an explanation of the entire situation.
The video also contains a 20 minute voice call between the victim and Fave where Fave is super defensive, but from the screenshots and voice call it's obvious Fave is slightly gaslighting them.

Zany

Victim #2

This one I have less context for, all I know is that one of his victims purposely tried to test and see if Fave would flirt with an underaged girl. (As in they were a troll who knew Fave was like this)
I'm pretty sure based on screenshots provided, They were actually underaged, being 16 at the time, luckily unlike the other 2 it was intentionally went along with, which has given us some pretty disturbing screenshots of Fave interacting with them sexually.

There's screenshots confirming this is actually Fave.
There's also an alleged voice call between them and Fave, supposedly of Fave speaking sexually toward them, which has been confirmed by another victim to be his voice.

The 3rd victim I also have really no context for so I can't really say much, but they met Fave on discord and eventually started speaking on Snapchat.
However, they were constantly asked for sexual favors by Fave and they remember how much it terrified them.
They were 14 going onto 15, but they told Fave they were 15 going onto 16.
Fave was 19
Update:
The victim has stated that they sent nude photographs to Fave, that Fave had also commented on their body when they sent the images, and they had e-sex in voice call
(This is something Fave has also mentioned he's participated in while VC'ing Ellie. It seems like it's something he's done a lot which means there could be a lot more victims I don't know)
They said Fave didn't send any photos back, but Fave allowed them to send nudes

(Fave believed they were 15)

This is all I've been given, It doesn't show much but flirting, I've been trying to ask questions but have not been given a lot of responses.. They were 14 (Lied they were 15, still underaged though)
This is also the same snapchat account you can see in Zany's screenshots

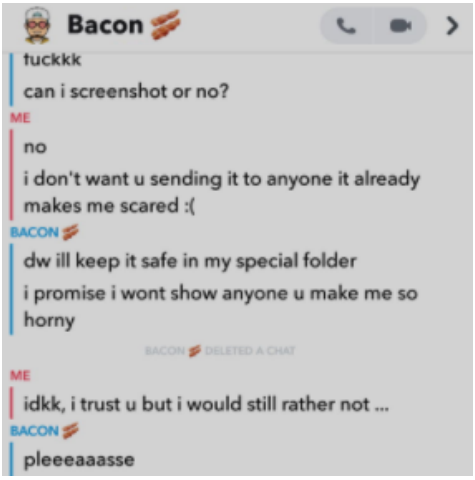
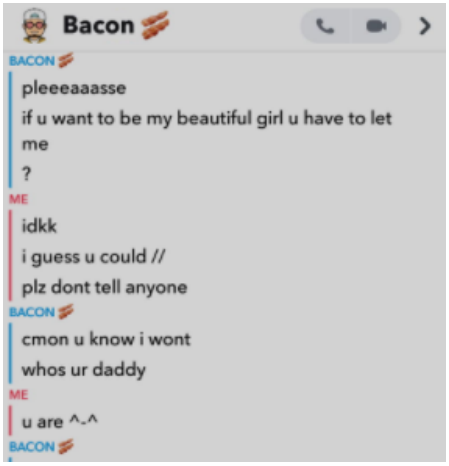
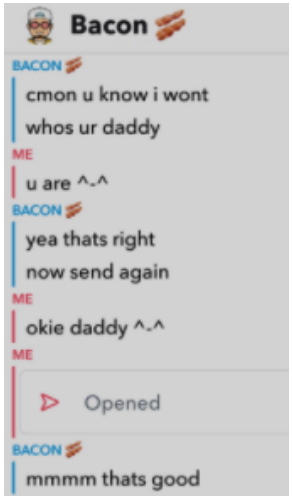
This is someone new who just DMed me, they told me in 2018 when Fave was 16/17ish and they were 13, them and Fave talked on discord and Snapchat
They deleted their old discord account apparently since Fave had threatened to show her friends the explicit photos she sent.
They don't have proof if they discussed the age or not, but they told me Fave had said they looked "small" in the pictures they sent him, and if you look at the screenshots he's literally begging to save the photos.
He says he'll keep it in his "special folder" which leads me to believe he might have some other photos saved there as well..

Photos:







Recently they went into Fave's server and were calling him out, and to my surprise it was who I had been trying to get in contact with, it was the person ~~~ told me about.
Obviously they got banned since the moderators can't let this stuff get out about Fave, but I friended them and we talked
They told me this happened in Early 2020, just like most of the girls in this document.
They met through mutual friends, and Fave started flirting with them almost automatically.

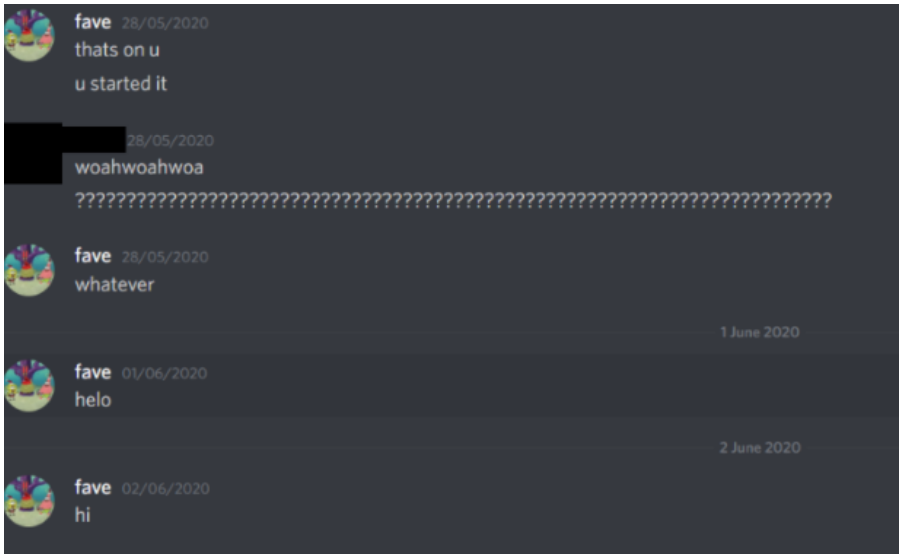
They called each other and 3 hours into call he would start saying sexually suggestive things.
Fave basically has an “85 questions” list he asks, which you can also see him asking “~~~” if she wants to answer. His responses were sexual.
As an example, question 10 of the list asks what’s the last movie they watched.
Fave answered and said he wanted to fuck the British girl in the film, then compared it to their voice chat.
The list of questions also asks if they’re a virgin, taken or single, about their last kiss, if they have an addiction, what type of guys they’re into, if they want kids, how they look, etc.
They don’t have much screenshots since it was mostly taking place on Snapchat and in voicechats, but according to them, Fave was in a VC with === and her friends, and she did bring up the fact she was 14.

According to them, Fave said things like..
He wanted to .. piss inside of her? Huh??? What the fuck?
Asked her to send nudes??
Flirting with her??
Bragging how many e-girls he had??

Photos:

So.. before they got banned, they had a specific role in Fave’s server.. Whatever this is..

And they know it’s only for friends, so the mods were confused, if they had the friend role why weren’t they mutual friends with Fave???
According to them, Fave gave it to them while they were still talking, and they still had it since then.
I can confirm they had this role before the moderators banned them for bringing it up, as I was there



So the context of this screenshot, Fave decided to turn it back onto them saying they started all the sexual things, and said she moaned in VC which caused him to go after her

FAVE! She's 14!

They said they can’t recall moaning in VC, so it could be a lie, but even if it’s not.. FAVE? SHE’S STILL 14.
It doesn’t matter if she moaned or not, she’s 14, that’s all I’m gonna say

Eresh

This victim was over 18 years of age when they met Fave and was of age throughout the entire situation.
While it’s not illegal, Fave was extremely creepy and kept trying to flirt with them despite them denying his advances.

Originally, they had offered Fave a relationship with them since he had seemed to like them, however he turned down the offer to get in a relationship, looking at the screenshots it’s obvious why he rejected it
They were pretty accepting, but were uncomfortable since despite Fave turning them down.. he still acted sexually and romantically.
They asked Fave to stop flirting with them several times yet he continued despite it.
They wanted to continue their friendship with Fave, but it was really hard considering how much Fave was flirting.

Back in 2015/2016, Fave and them met through mutual friends on skype, and they eventually became an Actor for Fave's old videos. Basically they'd just move around and act out whatever he needed for his videos
They were 14 at the time and Fave was 16

While they were in a call he made another "Off the clock on the cock" joke.. Which basically means if their age isn't a number of the clock then he'd be fine with doing sexual things with them.
He says this a lot.. Is this a joke? I really can't tell with how much he says and actually follows it.
He had actually said this a few times to them

In other calls together, he would act flirty, which made them very uncomfortable having to call him
Since they were uncomfortable and didn't want to call Fave, whenever he had called them they wouldn't pick up
This made fave upset for some reason

He'd ask sexual questions as well, like if he made her cum (This was in 2020 so they weren't underage anymore), He'd get upset if she had crushes, and if she'd save their snapchat messages so they wouldn't disappear, he'd get upset at that as well and ask her to delete them

Apparently it was really common for him to flirt as well, so over a 5/6 year span I can't really imagine how creepy he was

He apparently asked her not to tell anybody so it's obvious by that alone he knew what he was doing wasn't okay

They tried making a twitter thread about their experience but someone reported it.. I don't know who, but I still have screenshots. It looks like some I'm unable to get back but the ones I have should give you enough context to what happened between them:

I should also clarify they thought Fave was 17 since he lied about his age

They met Fave back in 2019 while they were 18 years old on twitter, The first thing he does is start acting weary since they were a clothing designer
He said he “Doesn’t have good history with clothing designers” and says “You might hear some things from them that might be true”
He told them about his history with one of them, which “didn’t end well”.
(He basically emotionally manipulated and abused them with threats of Self Harm and s//cide)

They became Fave’s friend because they felt bad for him and thought he needed one
Most of the creepy things said to her specifically were said on snapchat, and if you didn’t know snapchat messages either need to be saved or you’ll never see them again. They’re automatically deleted
However, off of snapchat, he still acted very weird.

A lot of these messages are very concerning, so I’ve got videos proving they’re real, Specifically the ones I found most creepy:

I've also heard when Fave was 15 there was some 11/12 year old girl he had tried flirting with back in 2015/16
People believed at the time he was 17, which would mean he would be 21 now-which is what Ellie believed he was.

Their response:

Hi, this is Jernie (aka CinderellaaRoblox). I wanted to share my personal experience with Fave from what I remember. The dm's between me and him happened about 5 years ago. I honestly don't remember very much from that time, so I'm not sure if there are any instances I may have forgotten. I'm just going to tell what I remember and try to confirm or deny what I can.

I remember getting a DM from Fave on Twitter one day, and I was kind of excited about it because he was one of the biggest roblox youtubers at the time. I had just won my Bloxy award a few months before, and was starting to gain more subscribers and friends in the roblox youtube community. I don't know how old Fave was at this time, but I pictured him to be 16-17. He seemed to be much older than me (for an almost 13 year old) and I found this kind of intimidating. I was already somewhat nervous about talking to boys in general, so to have a boy more mature and popular than me trying to chat was nerve-wracking, but also exciting in a way. I just wanted to make new friends in the community to hangout and collab with. I had a roblox boyfriend (lol) at the time so I wasn't romantically or sexually interested in Fave in any way.

Anyway, after accepting and replying to him, the conversation that happened between us can be seen in the DataRaven's Fave exposé video. This conversation was extremely uncomfortable for me, and I remember taking pictures of these messages and sending them to my friends, unsure how to respond. I remember after this incident, feeling creeped out and trying to keep my distance from Fave as much as possible (this wasn't much of a problem as he wasn't involved in my close friend group).

After a while, I remember hearing from my friends that DataRaven was making a video on Fave and that I was going to be in it. Somehow the screenshots I sent to my friends made their way over to him. I have no idea how, because I never sent them to anyone outside of my friend group. DataRaven had DMed me on Twitter when the videos were being created asking for my comments on the situation, but I didn't see these until after the video had been released. We later discussed Fave's actions and how gross we thought he was for DMing a 12 year old like that.
